Read the story.

I'm Ahmed from Riyadh. Last summer, my older brother and I went to Sudan. My brother works for a charity that gives healthful food and school supplies to children there. They do fantastic work, but not many people know about it.

His charity asked me to make a website for them so people could read about their work and help by giving money. I spent eight weeks in Sudan altogether. For the first two weeks, I traveled to different villages to learn about the charity. I was excited to help my brother and became proud of his work. Then, I went back to the capital city, Khartoum, and I designed and tested the new website. It was a success! Lots more people are giving money now to help the Sudanese children.

1 It was an amazing experience. I met a lot of new people and lived in a different culture. After I went back to Saudi Arabia, my parents said I could do the same work from home. So, I discovered two other charities and designed websites for them. I love the work. Now I know what I want to do after college.

Number the events in the correct order.

- 2 Ahmed traveled to villages in Sudan.
- 1 A charity asked Ahmed to design their website.
- 6 His parents said he could help other charities.
- 7 He designed websites for two other charities.
